C. S. Lewis

“Good and evil both increase at compound interest. That is why the little decisions you and I make every day are of such infinite importance. The smallest good act today is the capture of a strategic point from which, a few months later, you may be able to go on to victories you never dreamed of.”

SONG OF SOLOMON 2:1-17

She

I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.

He

Like a lily among thorns is my darling among young women.

She

Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest is my beloved among the young men. I delight to sit in his shade, and his fruit is sweet to my taste. Let him lead me to the banquet hall, and let his banner over me be love.

SONG OF SOLOMON 2:1-17

She

Strengthen me with raisins, refresh me with apples, for I am faint with love. His left arm is under my head, and his right arm stimulates me. Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you by the gazelles and by the does of the field: Do not arouse or awaken love until it so desires.

Listen! My beloved! Look! Here he comes, leaping across the mountains, bounding over the hills.

My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag. Look! There he stands behind our wall, gazing through the windows, peering through the lattice.

SONG OF SOLOMON 2:1-17

She

My beloved spoke and said to me, “Arise, my darling, my beautiful one, come with me. See! The winter is past; the rains are over and gone. Flowers appear on the earth; the season of singing has come, the cooing of doves is heard in our land. The fig tree forms its early fruit; the blossoming vines spread their fragrance. Arise, come, my darling; my beautiful one, come with me.”

SONG OF SOLOMON 2:1-17

He

My dove in the clefts of the rock, in the hiding places on the mountainside, show me your face, let me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely. Catch for us the foxes, the little foxes that ruin the vineyards, our vineyards that are in bloom.

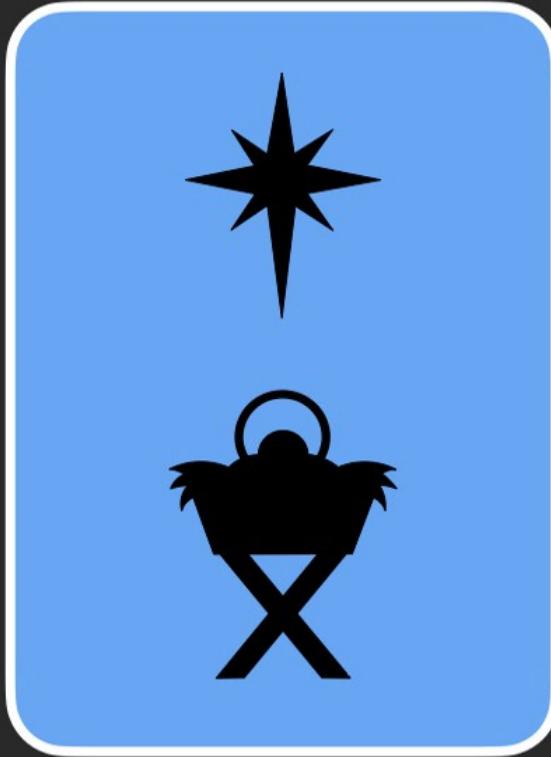

She

My beloved is mine and I am his; he browses among the lilies. Until the day breaks and the shadows flee, turn, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or like a young stag on the rugged hills.

The Song of Solomon

*To be human is to be embodied

*To be human is to be significant

*To be human is to be communal

The fall causes, "a failure to see the body as it truly is: as a sign that points beyond itself to God. When this happens, our desire for Infinite Beauty (eros) gets 'stuck' on the body itself. The icon becomes and idol, and we come to worship the creature rather than the Creator."

“A woman does not feel the need to cover her body when she is alone in the shower. But if a strange man were to burst into the bathroom, she would. Why? John Paul II proposes that ‘shame’ in this sense is a form of self-defense against being treated as an object for sexual use. In the case of the woman, she knows that she is never meant to be treated as a ‘thing’ for someone else’s pleasure.”

“When pleasure is the main goal of sex, people become the means and babies become the obstacle. So we take our pleasure, and we kill our offspring. This is not some dire prediction of an apocalyptic future. This is the culture we live in now: a culture of (dehumanization and) death.”

RECLAIMING THE HEART OF MASCULINE SEXUALITY

FOREWORD BY JOHN ELDREDGE

“What I’m driving at is this: Clothing serves less to cover our shame and more to veil our glory. In this broken world clothing is not a statement of the shameful nature of our bodies, but rather a recognition that most of us are not able to appropriately receive the body’s full glory.”
