The Song of Solomon

Literary Element: Metaphor

A photograph of a vast vineyard with rows of grapevines stretching towards rolling green hills under a clear sky. The image is used as a background for the 'NATURAL/AGRARIAN' metaphor category.

NATURAL/AGRARIAN

A top-down photograph of various spices and herbs, including star anise, cinnamon sticks, red berries, and ground spices, arranged on a light-colored surface. The image is used as a background for the 'SENSORY/AROMATIC' metaphor category.

SENSORY/AROMATIC

ROYAL/PRECIOUS

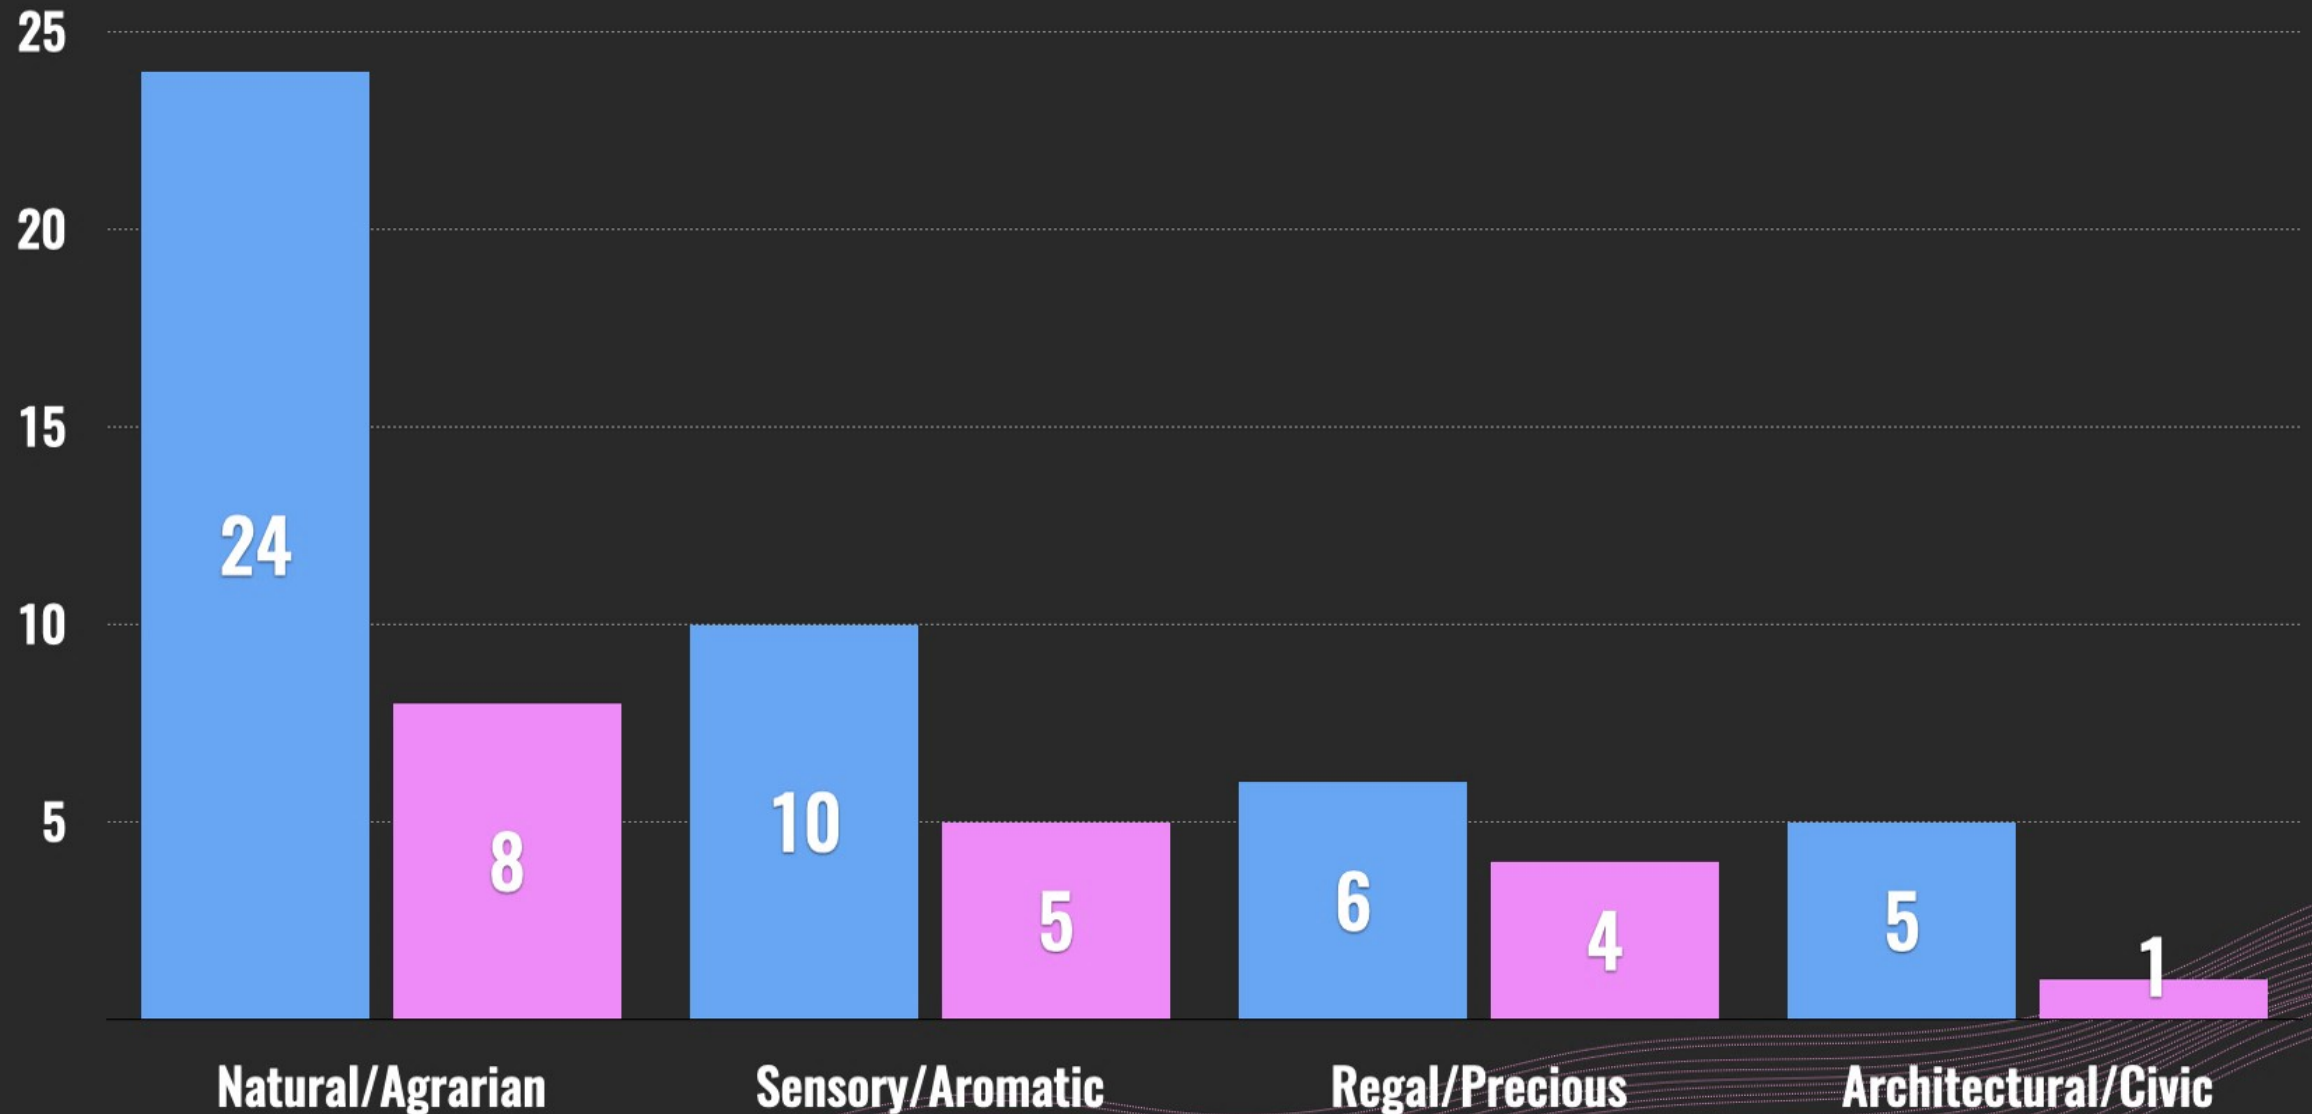

A photograph of a row of tall, fluted classical columns in a colonnade, with sunlight casting shadows on the ground. The image is used as a background for the 'ARCHITECTURAL/CIVIC' metaphor category.

The Song of Solomon

Literary Element: Repetition

SS 1:5

Dark am I, yet lovely,
daughters of Jerusalem,
dark like the tents of Kedar, like the tent curtains of Solomon.

SS 2:7

Daughters of Jerusalem,
I charge you by the gazelles
and by the does of the field:
Do not arouse or awaken
love until it so desires.

SS 3:5

Daughters of Jerusalem,
I charge you by the gazelles
and by the does of the field:
Do not arouse or awaken
love until it so desires.

SS 3:10-11

Daughters of Jerusalem,
come out, and look, you daughters of Zion. Look on King Solomon
wearing a crown...

SS 5:8

Daughters of Jerusalem,
I charge you—if you find
my beloved, what will you tell him? Tell him I am faint with love.

SS 8:4

Daughters of Jerusalem,
I charge you: Do not arouse or awaken love
until it so desires.

SONG OF SOLOMON 1:6-7

She

Do not stare at me because I am dark, because I am darkened by the sun. My mother's sons were angry with me and made me take care of the vineyards; my own vineyard I had to neglect. Tell me, you whom I love, where you graze your flock and where you rest your sheep at midday. Why should I be like a veiled woman beside the flocks of your friends?

SONG OF SOLOMON 6:8-9

He

Sixty queens there may be, and eighty concubines, and virgins beyond number; but my dove, my perfect one, is unique, the only daughter of her mother, the favorite of the one who bore her. The young women saw her and called her blessed; the queens and concubines praised her.

SONG OF SOLOMON 8:6-7

She

Place me like a seal over your heart, like a seal on your arm; for love is as strong as death, its jealousy unyielding as the grave. It burns like blazing fire, like a mighty flame. Many waters cannot quench love; rivers cannot sweep it away. If one were to give all the wealth of one's house for love, it would be utterly scorned.

SONG OF SOLOMON 8:11-12

She

Solomon had a vineyard in Baal Hamon; he let out his vineyard to tenants. Each was to bring for its fruit a thousand shekels of silver. But my own vineyard is mine to give; the thousand shekels are for you, Solomon, and two hundred are for those who tend its fruit.

SS 1:2

*Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth—
for your love is more delightful than wine.*

111

SS 4:16-5:1

*Let my beloved come into his garden and taste its choice fruits.
I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride; I have gathered my myrrh with my spice. I have eaten my honeycomb and my honey; I have drunk my wine and my milk.*

SS 8:14

Come away, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or like a young stag on the spice-laden mountains.
