When I grow

up I want to be...

Who are you becoming?

A top-down view of a wooden desk with a green keyboard, a pair of glasses, and some papers scattered around. The text is centered on the desk.

Because what you give your attention to is the person you become.

John Mark Comer

And Jesus died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.

So from now on we regard no one from a worldly point of view.

Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer.

he is a new creation;
the old has gone,
the new has come!

All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ
and gave us the ministry of reconciliation:

That God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting men's sins against them. And he has committed to us message of reconciliation.

Christ's ambassadors,
as though God were making his appeal through us.

We implore you on Christ's behalf:
Be reconciled to God.

God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

The primary message of Christianity is not an invitation, but a declaration, Jesus is Lord!”

All are welcome to submit to the saving Lord, Jesus Christ.

Who are you becoming?

You were saved.

You are being saved.

You will be saved.

discipleship merely to an intellectual exercise then we can actually have some measure of success on our own. But apprenticeship done well always requires relationship.”
