God of All Grace (1 Peter 5:10)

Today's Question:

Other than Jesus, what person in your life has shown you the most grace? Why did they do that?

A person is shown from the back, diving underwater. The water is dark blue, and numerous bubbles are rising from the diver's head, creating a trail that leads towards the text. The diver's hair is dark and appears to be floating in the water. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

1 PETER 5:10

*And the God of all grace,
who called you to his eternal glory in Christ,
after you have suffered a little while,
will himself restore you
and make you strong, firm, & steadfast.*

grace: receiving an incredible gift instead of the earned consequence.

"Now this end is called the thagomizer ... after the late Thag Simmons."

“Thagomizer” was slowly accepted as the legitimate anatomical word and is used by paleontologists.

- In which of the four acceptable absurdities do you find yourself participating?
- If grace is a reflection of the heart of the one extending it, not of the recipient, what does that mean for you and the level to which you extend grace?
- To whom do you need to extend grace as a witness to the grace you have received from Christ? How might you begin?
