A photograph of a person diving underwater. The person's head and shoulders are visible in the lower half of the frame, with their hair and skin appearing dark against the deep blue water. Numerous small, white bubbles are rising from the person's head, creating a trail that extends upwards into the upper half of the image. The overall atmosphere is serene and contemplative.

Early in the morning, as Jesus was on his way back to the city, he was hungry. Seeing a fig tree by the road, he went up to it but found nothing on it except leaves. Then he said to it, “May you never bear fruit again!” Immediately the tree withered.

MATTHEW 21:18-19

The fruits of the Holy Spirit are never out of season. Regardless of the season or situation, God expects His people to bear witness to His grace, truth, & love.

And [God] passed in front of Moses, proclaiming, “The Lord, the Lord, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness, maintaining love to thousands, and forgiving wickedness, rebellion and sin.”

EXODUS 34:6

God declares that His name is...

- + Gracious*
- + Slow to Anger*
- + Abounding in Steadfast Love*
- + Extending Grace to Thousands*
- + Forgiving Wickedness and Sin*

*He said love is patient,
then He said: I am love.
He said love is not easily angered,
then He said: I am love.*

*He said love keeps no record of wrongs,
then He said: I am love.
He said love always protects,
then He said: I am love.*

*He said love always overcomes,
then He said: I am love.
He said love never fails,
then He said: I am love.*
