Spiritual disciplines are not occasions to get holy by working harder, they are opportunities to be with Jesus—He is the one who restores us to who we ought to be.

If you would like to follow along in our church-wide study, grab a copy of “Spiritual Disciplines Handbook,” by Adele Calhoun as well as the guided packet created by Park Street.

Empowering authentic disciples who live life on mission with God.

Church-Wide Book Study: Week Two

WORSHIP GOD: RESPOND TO GOD'S GRACE

+ GRATITUDE is a loving, thankful response to God for His presence within us and this world. Nothing we have is deserved. All is a gift from God, so our appropriate response is to praise and thank God throughout each day. (pages 31-33)

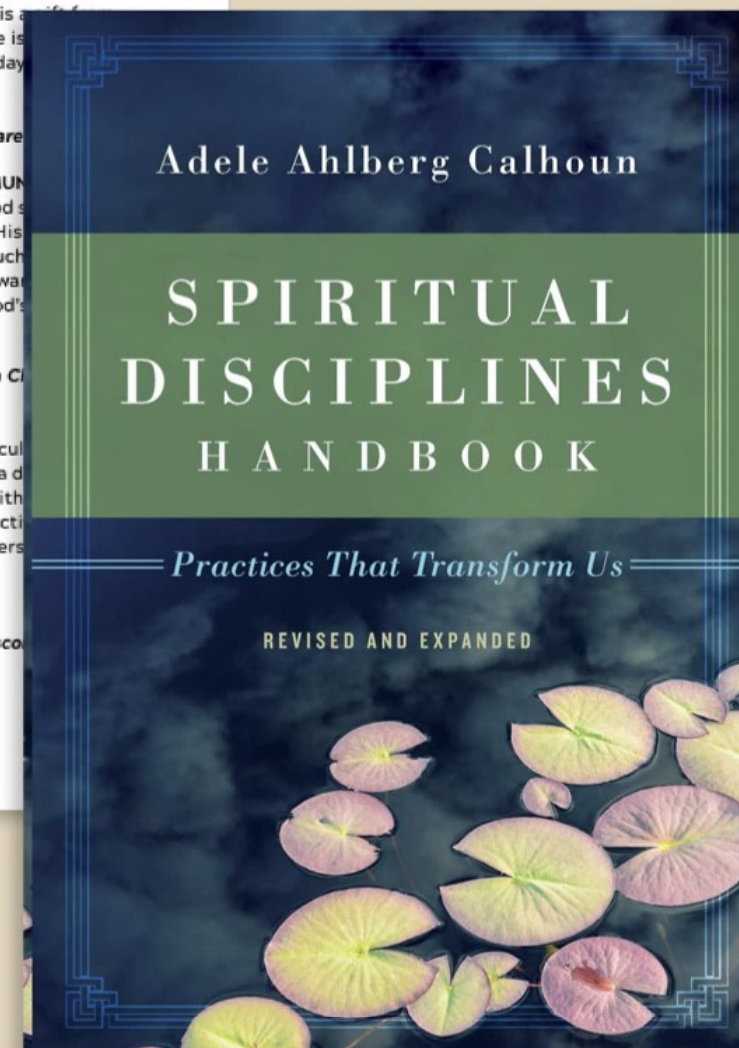

Keep a list of gifts for which you are grateful.

+ Instituted by Jesus, HOLY COMMUNION connects the Old Testament blood sacrifice to God's plan to rescue us through His blood. Our participation in the Eucharist meal of remembrance, is the outward expression of our awareness of the depth of God's love. (pages 34-36)

Celebrate the bread and cup with Christ and your community.

+ SABBATH is setting apart a particular day for rest and worship of God. It is a discipline of intentionally keeping company with God by letting go of busyness and productivity, taking time to love God, love others, and enjoy our God who loves us. (pages 42-45)

Set aside 24 hours to rest and discover your regular rhythms.

But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God, the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

Hebrews 12:22-24

Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe, for our God is a consuming fire.

Hebrews 12:28-29

You become like what you worship.
When you gaze in awe, admiration, and wonder at something or someone, you begin to take on something of the character of the object of your worship.

kind is to glorify God and to enjoy Him forever.
