Tales From The Afterlife (Luke 16:19-31)

Luke 16:19-21

¹⁹“There was a rich man who dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day.

²⁰But at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus whose body was covered with sores, ²¹ who longed to eat what fell from the rich man’s table. In addition, the dogs came and licked his sores.

Strange Stories

Luke 16:22-26

²²“Now the poor man died and was carried by the angels to Abraham’s side. The rich man also died and was buried. ²³And in Hades, as he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far off with Lazarus at his side.

Luke 16:22-26

²⁴ So he called out, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in anguish in this fire.' ²⁵ But Abraham said, 'Child, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things and Lazarus likewise bad things, but now he is comforted here and you are in anguish.'

Luke 16:22-26

²⁶Besides all this, a great chasm has been fixed between us, so that those who want to cross over from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.'

Strange Stories

Luke 16:27-31

²⁷So the rich man said, 'Then I beg you, father—send Lazarus to my father's house ²⁸(for I have five brothers) to warn them so that they don't come into this place of torment.' ²⁹But Abraham said, 'They have Moses and the prophets; they must respond to them.'

Luke 16:27-31

³⁰ Then the rich man said, 'No, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.' ³¹ He replied to him, 'If they do not respond to Moses and the prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.'"
